

I am against limiting the content broadcast by satellite radio. The local stations need to improve their services to compete, not limit others ability to provide services. Competition is good for consumers and this attempt to block progress should be stopped.
Thank you.